

MORRO COAST AUDUBON SOCIETY

POTLUCK & COMMUNITY PROGRAM

The Wealth of Birds and Wildlife Offered in Costa Rica

Presented by Jose Calvo

Monday, September 17th

Potluck at 6 pm – Program at 7 pm
South Bay Community Center in Los Osos
2180 Palisades Ave, off Los Osos Valley Rd

Costa Rica's diversity of birds and wildlife is no accident. Mountains sandwiched between the Pacific and Caribbean coasts cover more than half of the land area.

Jose's presentation include photos of rain and cloud forests, mountains and seashore habitats and some of the more remarkable birds and wildlife such as monkeys, sloths, and iguanas that call Costa Rica home.

Bring your own place setting and a dish to share for the potluck!
Refreshments will be provided by MCAS.

Morro Coast Audubon Society is pleased to present this FREE program and invites all members of the community to attend.
